

Key activities:

- Encouragement of spiritual directors in their work
- Opportunities for care and nurture through regular regional gatherings
- Annual conferences at locations across the country
- Training workshops, retreats and/or pilgrimages in conjunction with many of the conferences
- National, regional and local training programs
- Three online newsletters each year featuring input from our members
- Assistance in finding a spiritual director and/or supervisor

We welcome as members of the Australian Network for Spiritual Direction all who are interested in the spiritual journey as well as those interested in spiritual direction and qualified spiritual directors.

ANSD is run by an elected executive comprising the National President, Secretary and Treasurer, plus members representing each of the regional groups throughout the country.

Find your local representative's email address on the back of this brochure.

You are welcome to contact any executive member or regional representative by email for further information.
