

ANSD Winter Meditations 2022

Fridays - July 29 and August 5

4pm EST

Silence In Space and Time

We come each Friday to be prayerfully conscious that the chaos of our times is calling us to a new awareness of each other, of each element of creation and of ourselves. As a spiritual direction network, we seek to listen into articulation the life-giving presence of God, whether in war zones, depleted environments, or contexts of interpersonal violence. We hold these before our Creator seeking redemption as much for these situations as for ways in which we personally separate ourselves from the Whole.

A new story is emerging of which we are a crucial part. Letting that communion consciousness emerge not as a work that we do, but rather as the gift of our Creator and Redeemer in the unfolding plan of Love Energy and Wisdom Ways, will strengthen our resolve to wait patiently and to act prudently within our individual lives, our national contexts and on a global arena. In finding creativity in silence, we move on together in the unfolding plan.
